

2008 ANNUAL BUDGET PROPOSAL

(Provide amounts in U.S. dollars.)

There is no minimum requirement for financial contribution on the part of the student applicant or church partner in meeting the student's educational expenses. However, EAFC provides tuition assistance only. In the event that a scholarship is awarded, the following information provides assurance that the essential needs of the student and his/her family will be met.

SUMMARY OF EDUCATIONAL EXPENSES:

Debt is not to be included in your summary of expenses.

Anticipated cost of books, supplies: $ _____
Anticipated living expenses: $ _____
Tuition: $ _____
Total estimated educational expenses: $ _____

SUMMARY OF CONTRIBUTIONS:

Personal funds available for tuition and educational expenses: $ _____
Funds available from outside grants/ scholarships: $ _____
Funds available from family or other resources: $ _____
*Funds available from partnering church: $ _____
Total funds currently available: $ _____

*In-kind support from partnering church: Please describe:

Total tuition assistance requested from EAFC for one academic year:

$ _____

*The church partner is encouraged to demonstrate a vested interest in the student's educational and vocational goals by contributing to the financial needs of the student. However, if the church is able to contribute in-kind support only, please specify. (Examples of in-kind support may include, but are not limited to items such as the following: assistance with housing arrangements, dormitory fees, meals, childcare, books and supplies, transportation assistance, etc.)